"Rock On" is the most comprehensive and authoritative work ever produced on rock n' roll. Oldie expert Norm N. Nite has compiled an exhaustive array of data on over 1,000 of the most popular artists of the fifties and early sixties. Any singer who had a top 100 single during the golden days of rock n' roll can be found in this book. Nite spent over five years gathering, from the stars themselves, details of their recording careers, birthdates, hometowns, and other personal data heretofore unavailable elsewhere. His book goes behind the scenes to ferret out the real stories of the solid gold years of rock. In addition to his extensive coverage of rock n' roll, Nite also includes the outstanding country, popular, and novelty artists of the period to help the reader get a feel for all the musical strains that graced the rock era. "Rock On", illustrated by 350 classic photos of the stars in their heyday, will be welcomed and acclaimed by serious rockophiles as well as casual fans of popular music as the standard work on rock. -- From publisher's description.

Take one prankster, put her together with the editor of the world's most boring school newspaper, add one over-worked principal, and you've got a recipe for the most chaotic few weeks in the history of Upland Green Elementary. The unlikely duo of Martin Wettmore, editor and expert grammarian, and Trixi Wilder, prankster extraordinaire, is given the task of improving the pathetic sales of their school newspaper. Martin and Trixi clash over everything from journalistic integrity (Trixi has none) to imagination (Martin has none). But when the paper starts to wreak havoc at the school, Principal Baumgartner shuts it down and assigns Trixi to Saturday morning bus-washing duty. To redeem themselves, Martin and Trixi resolve to create one very special edition of the Upland Green Examiner.
