Commercial scriptwriting and traditional screenwriting follow entirely different formats. TV commercial scripts are written in a two-column format known as an audio/visual (or AV) script. As opposed to screenplays, where the format is best achieved with dedicated software, TV commercial scripts are easy to create in an ordinary word processing program.

Reading the Time Signatures. The number of notes allowed in each measure is determined by the time signature. As you saw in the time signature examples above, each time signature has two numbers: a top number and a bottom number: 2/4 time, 3/4 time, 4/4 time, 3/8 time, 9/8 time, 4/2 time, 3/1 time, and so on. The bottom number of the time signature indicates a certain kind of note used to count
